WANTED—A steady negro man, for the balance of the year. Apply at Democrat office.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS—Wednesday, Sept. 16.

Charles Schilling, charged with stealing a bolt of calico. Continued until to-morrow.

Henry Goudy, drunk, insulting ladies on the street, and having a large knife in his hand, threatening to cut two ladies. Security in $300 for six months and $100 to answer a plea of non-resistance.

Eliza McDonald, while drunk, took possession of a private residence. She had a child with her. Both the mother and child were sent to the almshouse.

Frank Hopt, a soldier, drunkenness. He was sent to the barracks. Major Harris will do for him.

Joseph Brown, for shooting Smith with intention to kill. Continued until Friday, as Smith is dying to-day.

Wm. S. Sweeney, stealing a valuable candlestick. Continued until to-morrow.

Rachel Garrett (i. e. c.), stealing a watch, breastpin and other articles of value from Bab, slave of R. F. Blair; $300 to answer in the Circuit Court.

William Hest, a boy, horse stealing, continued. It is a deplorable fact that men, women and children are charged daily, in this Court, with stealing horses.

Jane Cummings, who was presented several days ago, was again presented this morning for stealing five horses. She was released yesterday. The owner of one of the horses appeared this morning and identified his property. The case was continued.

A SOLDIER BADLY WOUNDED.—Yesterday evening a party of soldiers, under the influence of liquor, went to the house of Rebecca Waters, on the corner, near Green, one of the low, staid men in the city, and there got into a difficulty with the wife inmates. During the noise a soldier belonging to hospital No. 7, who gave his name as Peter Ayers, was badly wounded by one of the women by being struck over the head with a bottle. One reporter says the woman endeavored to rob the soldier. One of the women, Jane Riles, went to the jail and gave herself up.
The others will be arrested, and the case will be investigated before Judge Johnston this morning.

AMUSING SCENE.—At the Fair Grounds yesterday a young male, without any bridle on, went into the ring, and when the marshal attempted to drive him out his maleship took him by the tail of the tail, and he was quickly driven out into the ring, and at tempting to drive him out of the ring the second time his maleship again took his place among the directors, and to the amusement of the crowd, finally his maleship was persuaded that it did not belong to the honorable body of directors and he left.

IMPROVEMENTS AT THE NASHVILLE DEPOT.
One of the largest and most complete round houses ever built in the Western country is now being erected by the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company at the depot grounds. When finished this house will be capable of holding sixteen locomotives, with a fine turn-table in the center. It is without exception the finest in the country, and the company deserve great credit for their energy in this matter.

REFRESHMENTS AT THE FAIR.—Persons visiting the State Fair should not forget that there is established on the grounds a Walker's Eccles, under the special charge of our old friend John Koellp, who has on hand a supply of everything wanted by the weary.
His liquors are the finest, while his cigars are as good as can be obtained in the city. Give John a call.

LOOMS.—In the upper story of the Floral Hall, among the sewing-machines at the State Fair, is Mendonhall's superior parlor handloom, which excites general admiration. In the power hall, near the entrance to the Fair grounds, is Henderson's loom, which we have not seen in operation. It is an odd-looking affair, but may work well nevertheless.

LOUISVILLE THEATRE.—There was a large audience at the theatre last night to witness the new play of "Clouds with Silver Lining." The "Princesses," by Miss Thompson, is one of the finest pieces of acting that we have ever seen. The pieces will be repeated again tonight, to gether with the farce of the "Limberick B. B."

I. O. O. F.—At a called meeting of the Grand Lodge, which convened yesterday evening at 8 o'clock, P. M. G. M. J. M. Armstrong was elected Grand P. M. representative to the Grand Lodge of the United States in place of F. G.
S. Samuel L. Adams, resigned, which meets in Baltimore on next Monday morning.

WOOD'S THEATRE.—Another full house greeted Miss Macarthy and Mr. Vincent last night, on the occasion of their third appearance in our city. The bill for to-night is "Ireland as I Was" and "Married Bachelors." Miss Macarthy and Mr. Vincent appearing in both pieces.

ARRESTS.—Thos. Hy arrested a man named Wm. S. Sweeney, who entered Dr. Clark's house and stole a silver-plated candlestick. He also arrested Chas. Schilling, charged with stealing a bolt of calico, which can be seen at the Police Office this morning, when these cases will be disposed of.

EASTERN MAIL.—The Eastern mail failed to reach our city yesterday, on account of the train failing to connect at Seymour. In consequence of this detention we were without our Cincinnati and Eastern papers.

SEWING MACHINES.—The working of Grover & Baker's sewing-machines yesterday, in Forest Hall, by Mr. Barlow, especially is considering, excited general admiration. The like has not often been witnessed.

WE understand that the work on the Danville road is being pushed forward with great vigor.

KENTUCKY STATE FAIR—SECOND DAY.

Yesterday morning dark clouds overhung the earth, and about 10 o'clock a light rain set in, which deterred many from being present at the Fair Grounds; but, notwithstanding this, the attendance was large, there being nearly five thousand persons present. The rain was but light, and in the afternoon it cleared off, but the sun came out, and we had a most pleasant evening. The exhibition of thorough-bred horses was very fine, and in a number of the rings the competition was exciting. The noble animals that gained the different premiums and certificates are said to have been scarcely superior to their unsuccessful competitors. Such a large attendance was on the beautiful grounds was very encouraging to those interested in the Fair, and the noble animals, as they pranced around the ring, seemed to appreciate the shouts that went up from the vast multitude that filled the amphitheater. We annex the awards of premiums as made yesterday:

THOROUGHBRED HORSES.

Stallion, four years old and upward, $30—three entries—A Pennington, Jeff. county, premium; a Mr. Spencer county, certificate; Stallion, three years old and under four, $20—entries—Thomas Barry, premium and certificate;
Stallion, two years old and under three, $15—four entries—Gibson, Mallory, premium; W.
Blackburn, certificate; Stallion, one year old and under two, $10—three entries—Gibson, Mallory, Jeff. county, premium; A Pennington, Jeff. county, certificate; Mare, four years old and upward, $25—seven entries—G. Mallory, Jeff. county, premium and certificate;
Mare, three years old and under four, $20—Philip Switzer, premium and certificate; Mare, two years old and under three, $15—S. T.
Draze, Henry county, premium; Dr. King, certificate;
Mare, one year old and under two, $10—D. S.
Gregory, Jeff. county, premium; Mare, two years old and under three, $10—Wm. Winchester, Jeff. county, premium and certificate; Judges—B. G. Boone, Chairman, Lexington; E.
McIntosh, Treas. Louisville; T. S. Safford; S.
F. Gano, Georgetown; W. S. Buford, Midway.

WILDS.

Horse male, two years old and under three, $2—Newton Bright, premium; Mare male, two years old and under three, $20—four entries—Gibson, Mallory, premium; Mare male, one year old and under two, $15—O.
H. Burbridge, premium;
Mare male, under one year old, $10—Newton Bright, premium;
Mare male, under one year old, $10—L. Hopkins, premium; M. Brown, certificate; Judges—D. W. Jones, Chairman, Danville; J. V.
Johnson, Paris; Jas. F. Bell, Frankfort; Dr. A. L.
Lightfoot, Haverhill; Benedict Kirk, Washington.

RIDING RINGS.

Best riding over twelve and under eighteen years of age, $30—four entries—Geo. F. Shockey, premium; Russell, certificate; The riding ring for boys over 13 and under 18 years of age excited considerable interest, as such rings are always do. There were four entries for the premium, all of whom were excellent riders. George F.
Shockey, son of J. W. Shockey of this city, rode the blue ribbon, while the red was awarded to young Ralston of Woodford county.

The trotting race against time was very interesting, and created considerable excitement. There were two entries, L. L. Dorsey of Green Mountain Black Hawk and J. B.
Parks of Edward Everett. From the well known pedigree of each of these stallions, and the fact that they were both in this country were not disappointed, when we take into consideration that the race at the grounds is made on a half mile track. The pure was $100, given by the proprietors of the Galt House. The following time was made: Edward Everett, 2:50; Green Mountain Black Hawk, 2:44; 2:45.

The contest of double teams for the Moody stake was between J. W. Shockey and J.
Caldwell, the latter winning in 2:32.

FLORAL HALL.

This place was thrown open to visitors yesterday, and in a short time it was filled with the most beautiful ladies and gentlemen.
The hall was beautifully arranged, being decorated with evergreens, flowers, fruit, and all kinds of ladies' work and works of art. The display of fruit, flowers and vegetables is large, and the specimens are very fine. In one bouquet we noticed as many as sixteen different varieties of flowers. There were several very fine quilts on exhibition, showing the handy-work of delicate hands. Our attention was particularly attracted to one, made of silk, in hospitable shape, interspersed with white, which was worked flowers of every description. In the center of this quilt is an excellent portrait of Washington, the father of his country, worked with a needle. There were a number of others, all beautiful and well made, but our space will not allow us to make particular mention of all. We were also particularly attracted to a large case containing work made by Mrs. Robinson. This case contains pieces of watermelon, apples, peaches, a glass of lemons, grapes, cucumbers and raw oysters in the most beautiful and natural arrangement.

A sight of this case alone will repay a visit to the Fair Grounds. The committees had not finished their awards of premiums last evening, and we will not be able to furnish them to our readers until to-morrow.

To-day will undoubtedly be the best day of the week, as it is the day set apart for harness races. We learn that there will be a number of entries for each ring, and the competition for the various premiums will be keen. There will also be two races against time, the first for the Louisville Association stake of $75 for horses four years old and upwards, and the other for the Hotel de Reine stake of $50 for pairs of buggy horses four years old and upwards. We hope that the large amphitheater will be filled to-day to overflowing.

REPORTS FROM ROSCHANS' ARMY.

The Nashville Press is informed by a gentleman who left Bridgeport at eight o'clock on Tuesday, that there had been severe fighting with the advance of the army under Gen. Rosschans. Particulars were not known further than that Thomas' division had been worsted, Gen. Negley badly wounded and two colonels killed. Bragg seems to be slowly retreating towards Atlanta, and has been heavily re-scattered from Richmond. Eight hundred officers (mostly from St. Louis) on Monday evening. A considerable body of troops, cavalry and infantry, passed through the sample, having been sent back to protect the Nashville and Chattanooga railroad.

INQUEST No. 1—Held on the 14th day of September, 1863, on the Ohio river, sixteen miles below Louisville, Jefferson county, Ky., on the body of Theodore Weissendorf, aged about twenty six years, and supposed to be a German. Verdict—Came to his death by drowning.
Right about five feet six inches; had a saber and revolver and a blank book upon his person, with the name of Theodore Weissendorf, Sergeant of Company G, Sixth Kentucky volunteer infantry.

M. N. RAUBON,
Magistrate of Jefferson County, Ky.

INQUEST No. 141—Held September 16th, 1863, one and a half miles from Louisville, on the body of a German man aged about 65 or 70 years. He was found dead on the premises of Mrs.
Catherine Zeigler. He had been about three or four days, but would not tell his name. I understand he has a daughter living in this city, and is the wife of a shoemaker. The cause of death is unknown.

JAMES C. GILL, Coroner.

PREMIUM SUIT—Master John H. Womack, Elm Cliffs, Jefferson county, Ky., is the lucky young gentleman that gets the magistrate's premium suit offered by J. M. Armstrong, on Main, opposite the National, for best horsemanship at the fair on Tuesday last.

On Friday night last, about ten o'clock, the powder house of L. B. Smith exploded with a tremendous report, completely demolishing the building. Fortunately no one was hurt.

There will be a regular meeting of the City Council at the usual hour to-night.

LOCAL NOTICES.

WHEAT BURN.—We learn that on yesterday, when Mr. Newgate was threshing his wheat, the grain caught on fire and was entirely consumed. The amount destroyed was six hundred bushels.—[Mayville Eagle.]

A rare opportunity is offered to dealers to lay in fresh goods in the grocery line abundant, by visiting Mr. G. W. W. Chaffield's sale, at his auction rooms, this morning at ten o'clock.

NEW SEWING MACHINE.—The attention of the public, and especially the ladies, is called to the new and improved Sewing Machine of Norris, who deserves the patronage of all our citizens.

La Favorita—this choice brand of Cigars for sale at Warner's, 305 Jefferson street. sels 65

WORLD'S FAIR, LONDON, 1863.—The highest premium has been awarded for the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machines at the World's Fair, recently held in London, England, with all other sewing machines in competition.
This result has been expected of course, but is still highly complimentary to American genius, and a triumph more noteworthy considering the public sentiment in England.
This marked recognition of this machine not only adds to its prestige, confirming, as it does, the numerous awards here, but should satisfy the public that if any sewing machine, Wheeler & Wilson's is the machine to do it.

and willow wickets; also, a full supply of any baggies at Sims' VARIETY STORE.

By far the cheapest place to buy summer clothing is at Scott, Keen & Co., corner Sixth and Main streets. sels 65

OLD, OLDER, OLDEST.—I say, Smith, where do you get that whiskey we have had of late? I have been drinking it for years, and I know it is the best. I got that at the old Baltimore House, No. 115 Market street, south side, between First and Second, where the very best liquors are kept for sale at retail and wholesale. The best brandy in the city is to be found there, and it is all right, certainly. O yes! you can get the same kind of the Fair Grounds, opposite the true is located, near the main entrance booth, of friend M. W. Brown.

Remember the drunkard, the child of sorrow and degradation; he has a disease which the human mind cannot control. Remember the drunkard's family, his heartbroken wife, his interesting children; soon their father will squander his property, if he has any, and leave them to want; soon he must die, and leave them to starve. The drunkard is a curse to his family, and a shame to his
ing in this city, and is the wife of a shoemaker. The cause of death is unknown.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 3, 1863.

The undersigned, have seen the good effect produced by the use of Dr. J. C. B. B. Carbon Bitters in cases of general debility and prostration of the system, and believe its general use would prevent disease and relieve much suffering. Among our soldiers particularly, it would be the case, especially those who are exposed to malarial influences in the Southern climate.
